Caring for Seniors in Dufferin provides non-medical assistance to individuals and families in their home, retirement home, hospital or long term care home. We are based in Orangeville, Ontario and serve Caledon and Dufferin County. We have a team of professional, reliable personal support workers, dedicated to providing compassionate, safe one-on-one personal care. We understand that being in a familiar environment can enhance quality of life and help to preserve dignity. That's why we're committed to providing home care assistance that is understanding, dependable and affordable.

Our Caregiver/ Personal Support Workers

At Caring for Seniors our staff of experienced professional personal support workers dedicate themselves to providing safe, comfortable, one-on-one home care. Everything we do as caregivers is geared towards meeting the needs of the individuals and families we serve.

Our Personal Support Workers

- have acquired a Certificate of Personal Support Work from a recognized Ontario college or equivalent institution
- have undergone a police vulnerable sector check and background reference checks
- maintain up to date CPR/First Aid certifications & immunization records
- have WSIB coverage and are bonded & insured while providing care in your home

We provide proof of employee certifications, police checks, client references and business liability insurance upon request.

We offer free, no obligation, in-home consultations.

There are no contracts to sign. We deliver care 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and we will work with you to customize a plan to suit your individual needs. If you or your loved one needs some support transitioning from a hospital stay to home or want some assistance with a personal activity, we are here to help. Our minimum is 3 hours per visit. Give us a call to learn more about how our caregivers can serve you and your family.
